October 2026

KUMBHA (Aquarius)

Dhanishta (3,4), Satabisha, Poorvabhadra(1,2,3)

Career: It is an apt time for Entrepreneurs to hit the accelerator, on a personal endeavour, as it will result in profits. Bringing a crucial project to the finish line will line you for promotion with a salary-hike. Rivals will be extra active, but won't stand a chance against your quick-thinking and your agile moves. However, be wary, as a slight miscommunication will breed contempt towards colleagues. Artists using their witty and experimental ways will be their secret ingredient of success in their pet project. After 17th, professionals will be facing an unexpected detour or the heavy workload of an ongoing project. Keep your communication and approach crystal clear to evade false accusations. After 26th, see where improvements or adjustments can be made to drive a backburner project straight to success. Freelancers need to slow down and observe, before rushing into new collaborations, as someone's agenda is not as clear as they are portraying. This month, Job-seekers will have to be on their toes, to attract a stable job.

Wealth : This month, a small window of opportunity will open up that will help you to stabilize your dwindling finances. Stars will open up possibilities for a new source of income, but check the viability, before rushing in. A forgotten investment scheme will give more than expected return. An old real estate deal will finally shape into a generous pay-cheque. Think before impulsively reacting as it can put you into legal issues. After 17th, an expense that you had been avoiding can no longer be postponed. Investment in the stock market looks favorable this month, with a promise of satisfactory returns. Avoid draining hard-earned savings on showy purchases.

Personal: The less you meddle, the better, Aquarians! Relationships would take center- stage this month! Stars will cause unnecessary arguments with your partner, sparked by external pressures. Singles! allow yourself a moment of thoughtful observation before pledging commitment to a newly discovered love prospect. Be careful, as constant fighting and bickering will shape into huge arguments with father. After 17th, women will decide to pull back from certain associations that are not aligned with their values and vision anymore. Combining theoretical study with practical review and time boxed group sessions will prevent procrastination and keep students focused. This month, travel plans will go sideways, as flights will get delayed, or itinerary plans will require a reset.

Health: All aboard the wellness wagon Aquarians! This month, those working on improving their nutrition can expect recovery from troubling ailments. However, weak gut health will shape into indigestion or stomach issues if not careful. Those suffering from blood ailments need to be careful. After 17th, schedule any due checkups and get your health and stress levels on track. Reduce screen-time before bed, and practise relaxation techniques to calm your thoughts to stay calm and centered.

Dhanishta (3,4): Practical thinking and consistent effort at work are paying off, but avoid rushing through tasks.

Satabhisha: A relationship from the past may resurface, and current commitments will require honest re-appraisal.

Poorvabhadra(1,2,3): Emotional stress can manifest physically, so establish a grounding routine, and prioritize rest over forcing results.

Vedic Remedies: Worship Lord Ganesha to remove obstacles and find mental clarity. Perform “Chhaya Daan” i.e. look at your reflection in Mustard oil kept in a vessel, and then donate the oil. Recite Hanuman Chalisa daily. Visit the nearby temple as often as possible.

Lal-Kitab Remedies: Gift Green clothes to a girl child. Feed boiled rice to the Crows.
