Punarvasu (4), Pushya, Aslesha

Career: At the workplace, your talents will shine, placing your name at the top of the list for upcoming promotion or salary-hike. For Professionals, your recent achievements will greatly impress your seniors. The New Moon on the 10th, marks a very auspicious day to sign a new agreement or contract. Freelancers with their polished skill-set will be poised to monetize their talents. Job-seekers will receive opportunities for the much-awaited employment that will come 'out-of-the-blue'. After 17th, your mind will remain occupied with work complexities and overbearing workload. An unexpected request or shift in plans at work will create a moment of friction with co-workers. After 26th, small mistakes will cause a key presentation to come to a disappointing halt. This month, avoid investing your time or resources in any Start-ups. For Artists, impulsively accepting a creative project will place you at a disadvantage.

Wealth: Expect new revenue streams, income opportunities; financial flow will start streaming in. Dividends and returns on previous investments will give a boost to your savings. After 17th, you will feel excessive anxiety, surrounding a large expense or an unpaid bill. You might receive financial help or a very useful "profitable tip" from your spouse. After 26th, when applying for loans or signing any financial transaction, read the terms carefully, before committing. This month, avoid rushing into any Real estate deals.

Personal: But first, gently clear the air! This month, with your dwindling smooth-talking skills, avoid so assuming to charm your way out of a sticky situation. Around the New Moon on 10th, Singles will attract an array of admirers, but take your time to check who actually fits your set standards. You will find that your family relationships require effort and work at this time, especially with the female family members in your life. After 17th, couples will benefit, if they engage in communication that will feel over burdening at first, but it will help forge deeper understanding. Women will release all old ways, situations or relationships that no longer serve their growth in life. This month, you will plan a short trip or a quick getaway to take a break from your demanding schedule.

Health: Time to create more balance in your world. You need to be careful, if you are prone to seasonal flues or have blood-related ailments. Excessive typing, mobile usage, or continuous work will cause stiffness in the neck and shoulders. After 17th, practise Pranayama to keep your mind calm, and keep other stress-related ailments at bay.
