MITHUNA (Gemini)

Mrugasira (3,4), Arudra, Punarvasu (1,2,3)

Career: This month is a good time for Entrepreneurs to strengthen their game-plan to strengthen their dominance in existing markets. Misunderstandings with authority-figures or co-workers will surface, causing conflicts to rise. Shortcuts or corner-cutting will put goodwill in jeopardy. Higher Management will experience postponed meetings, slow administrative approvals, or tech glitches that will pile up their workload. Around the Full Moon on 25th, at the workplace, a promotion will bring you higher responsibility along with better benefits and gains. Communication will get murky, so double check all details, before signing new contracts. Stalled projects from the past are likely to gain sudden momentum for Freelancers. After 26th, those in Marketing, make sure to research and test the game plan, before leaping into any costly digital launch. This month, old work issues or projects that you thought were closed will suddenly re-surface for those in the creative field.

Wealth: The New Moon on the 10th, will bring a sudden spike in expenses. Avoid getting into any rich quick schemes. Market share investments will give less than expected returns. It would be better to avoid any major purchases or real estate deals, to avoid drainage of savings. However, on the Full Moon on the 25th, any previous cash restraints or problems will begin to ease off. This month, hire an expert, before signing off “too-good-to-be-true” loan deals.

Personal: This month is prime time to firm up your boundaries with loved ones. For women, their focus will shift inward, as they heal through solitude and reflection. Couples need to avoid getting bogged down in heavy topics and keep the interactions light, to avoid conflicts with your partner. Around the Full Moon on the 25th, expect full support from family that will help you breeze through a tricky situation with ease. A single re-appearance of a past love, when you least expect, will re-kindle old flames. Students, breaking their study materials down into smaller, manageable chunks will overcome any academic blocks. This month, delayed or cancelled travel plans will add to further frustration and disappointment.

Health: Prioritizing downtime! This month, listening to your body’s subtle signals about rest versus activity will be important to restore yourself back to good health. Mental stress will cause headaches and energy drainage. After 17th, it is important to monitor your health regularly, to avoid any heart or stomach issues from resurfacing. Incorporating stretches or light exercises in your schedule will offer some relief from potential muscle tension.

Mrugasira (3,4) : Emotional understanding improves, because you will become more willing to listen, instead of simply reacting.

Arudra : You may feel a stronger desire to lead, create and push forward in your work sector.

Punarvasu (1,2,3) : You may plan to start a new venture with the help of your siblings or network.

Vedic Remedies : Do perform Kal Bhairav Puja on the Ashtami Tithi of Krishna paksha. Donate Yellow articles on Thursdays. Worship Lord Ganesha and recite mantras and stotras of the deity Ganesha.

Lal-kitab Remedies : Donate White sweets on Fridays. Feed Cows with Green fodder.

Cautious Dates : 18, 19, 20, 21.
