DHANUS (Sagittarius)

Moola, Poorvashada, Uttarashada(1)

Career: Casting a wide net will become your new normal this month. Get ready for a bounty of contracts, partnership opportunities and powerful new connections. Those in Marketing, a money-making endeavour they have been working on for a while now, will finally come to fruition around the New Moon on 10th. Entrepreneurs will lean on their closest allies, which will give them an edge against their rivals. At the workplace, you will set yourself up for greater success as the promised promotion and salary hikes come your way. Freelancers will gather resources and achieve desired success in their latest venture. Professionals can expect support of colleagues to push a key presentation to the finish line. After 26th, focusing on perfectionism will become a cause of an unexpected speed bump in a new launch. You may receive a sign of a new opportunity, but check all terms and conditions before deciding. Job-seekers! read the terms, before accepting positions with binding clauses.

Wealth: If you are planning to make any money moves, then aim for bigger profits. A property matter will bring abundance to you around the New Moon on the 10th. After 17th, you will receive information about an old investment that could yield great profits in the future. Generous pay-cheques will flow in from well-vetted fiscal schemes. After 26th, any pending work related to the claiming proceeds or dividends will be delayed or prolonged. Be prepared to budget for some unexpected extra expenses, as it is not a favourable time to enter into any speculation or wagering. If you were considering taking a loan, it is appropriate to postpone for next month. Avoid excessive spending or lending money to anyone, this month.

Personal: This month, the stars will be spotlighting your closest unions. Expect the family to support you in time of need. However, for Singles, a love prospect will send mixed messages, leaving you unsure, where you stand in their life. Women will re charge their batteries by escaping the crowds and certain social groups. After 26th, old conversations may resurface, which could cause some mental distress among couples. Miscommunication and ego trips will increase discord with family. Impatience will derail the progress of students who are planning to sit in competitive examinations. This month, you will be motivated to slip off the grid for solo restorative travel experience.

Health: Wellness is an inside-out job! This month, the stars are encouraging you to take a compassionate approach to self-care! Your consistent efforts will help heal faster from pressing ailments. However, make sure not to ignore any breathing or blood-related issues this month. Refrain from consuming overly fried or salty foods. Gentle activities like walking or slow strolling in the courtyard will be beneficial.

Moola: Use diplomacy in both your personal and professional life, to prevent miscommunications from turning into unnecessary drama.

Poorvashada: A surge of cosmic support will bring focus to your public image, paving the way for fresh leadership and group collaborations.

Uttarashada (1): Your charm peaks, making it a stellar time to connect with friends or spark new romance.
