October 2026

VRUSCHIKA (Scorpio)

Visakha (4), Anuradha, Jyeshta

Career: Stretch beyond your comfort-zone! An exciting deal or contract will come in but take your time mulling over the terms before signing it. At the workplace, good news will arrive that unfolds into promotion or salary hike. Artists will sign up for a series of courses to enhance their skill set. For Jobseekers, glowing recommendations from mentors will land them a high salary. After 17th, you will face increased responsibility from senior officials, leading to rising workload and stress. Stay away from getting triggered and making impulsive moves against rivals. Office politics will intensify, as someone will try to undermine your goodwill or hard work in a key presentation. Around the Full Moon on 25th, freelancers need to stay ready for their spotlight moment for the commendable job in their pet project. It will finally receive its due. After 26th, those in Marketing will experience delayed payments from old clients. Those involved in property dealing or construction will face work-delays, due to machinery breakdowns.

Wealth: From investments to passive income to wealth-building, your eye will be on the long game. Expect your next big win through passive income stream. However, for those planning for a major purchase, it would be best to postpone it for the coming month. There might be pressure or a reminder regarding clearing an outstanding loan or payment. Expenses will shoot up without warning. After 17th, refrain from entering into any tempting investment offers. Expect to face delays in receiving dividends or proceeds from old fiscal schemes. After 26th, be vigilant and double check everything, when making digital payments. This month, refrain from taking new loans, as you will face immense difficulties in repayment.

Personal: Make a choice. Trying to juggle between career goals and couple goals, it will become a cause of conflict among couples. Singles will dive a little deeper in conversations with a prospective love match to see, if they really meet your set requirements, before proceeding further. Be careful, as there is a friend that does not have your best interests at heart. After 17th, students will benefit, if they avoid getting so absorbed in excessive research that you lose track of your main deadlines. For women, family gatherings and heavy social obligations may drain you quickly. After 26th, expect unexpected detours, miscommunication with travel companions, or forgotten items while traveling this month.

Health: Ready, set, release! This month, remember that self-care should not feel like punishment when starting a new health regime. Be wary of trying strenuous exercises as it will cause muscular aches and pains to increase. After 17th, correcting the sleep schedule will keep stress-related issues under tight reign. Stomach issues or seasonal flues will slow your progress down. Consider preventing burn-out by, taking regular breaks or taking a warm salt-water foot soak.

Visakha (4) : You will have tensions related problems, stiffness, aches and pains.

Anuradha : Mental exhaustion may surface, if you absorb too much of others' stress.

Jyeshta : Expect a major push in your professional sector, where your ability to build connections will yield exciting new rewards.

Vedic Remedies : Donate food or coins to a sanitation worker to reduce financial obstacles. In the evening, light a mustard oil lamp under a Peepal tree and meditate there for 2 minutes. Visit Lord Hanuman temple on Saturdays and offer Tulsi leaves.

Lal-kitab Remedies : Feed Crows with salty savouries. Gift stationery items to 5 poor children.

Cautious Dates : 02, 03, 04, 29, 30, 31