October 2026

KANYA (Virgo)

Uttaraphalguni (2,3,4), Hasta, Chitra (1,2)

Career: This month, recognition is within reach, if you step up and show off your skills. Appreciation and timely support from colleagues will flow in easily and effortlessly. A leadership role or new career opportunity will arise for those in Marketing. Stars will open up new avenues for Entrepreneurs, to bag lucrative deals. Circulating in new professional circles will bring in a promising job-offer for those seeking employment. Those appearing for interviews may gain confidence from past professional experiences. Hold off officializing any expansion plans or collaboration this month. After 17th, a rash remark will put you in hot waters with seniors. After 26th, make sure to keep your message clear, to avoid miscommunication with colleagues during the preparation of a key presentation. Engaging in new launches will trigger price fix-ups and mounting workload. This month, halt all plans to switch to a whole new career-path.

Wealth: See the bigger picture. This month, there is a strong call to release what is not serving your financial growth and prompting you to examine inefficiencies you have overlooked. Real estate investments will open multiple avenues to multiply cash-flow. However, budgeting is recommended to keep expenses in check. After 17th, avoid putting your savings in speculations. The Full Moon on 25th, will bring a new wave of financial prosperity through foreign fiscal schemes. However, you will be reminded of some old debts or unpaid past transactions that need to be cleared. A financial plan or a potential investment opportunity will hit an unexpected snag. Scrutinize the fine print to make sure no critical detail is being overlooked, when signing any loan agreement.

Personal: This month, maintain trust and patience in matters of the heart. Good news regarding children will knock at your door. Expect timely support from friends when facing challenging situations. However, for couples, instead of letting small issues accumulate, a careful, step-by-step resolution will bring significant relief to their connection. Singles need to avoid making quick decisions in new relationships. After 17th, for women, discussions related to household responsibilities or discipline will lead to heated arguments, if not careful. After 26th, avoid any last minute travel, as it will become a tedious and stressful journey. Students' dedication to details and overcoming any academic challenge will become the reason for them, to achieve their study goals this month.

Health: This month, choose the path of gentle self care over perfectionism. Those suffering from heart and blood pressure issues need to be extra careful. After 17th, the stars encourage you to review old habits and let go of anything that is escalating headaches, eye-related or stress-related issues. Be mindful of what you put on your plate for the next couple of days, as your energy will be easily drained.

Uttaraphalguni (2,3,4): Your hard work is building a rock-solid foundation for future success.

Hasta: Your persistence will finally pay off, as you can now look forward to potential promotions, scaling your business, and attracting new income streams.

Chitra (1,2): Your focus will shift toward improving your domestic life, bringing warm, heartfelt conversations with family.
